Final Call: Submit Your Abstract by 15th January!

Share your research, innovations, and insights at the 25th IUHPE World Conference on Health Promotion. Join the global conversation on health promotion by submitting your abstract today. Showcase your work to an international audience and play a pivotal role in shaping the future of health and well-being.

All abstract submitters, including individual contributors, are encouraged to actively engage and collaborate with fellow presenters and participants.

Priority will be given to participatory, collaborative, and innovative session formats during the selection process.

Settings for Health & Innovations

Health-literate environments in schools, healthcare, and communities harness digital transformation and precision tools to advance health promotion.

Beyond Settings

Inclusive health equity for all ages, supported by policies, global-local networks, and health promotion financing.

Planetary Settings for Health Promotion

One Health promoting ecohealth, spirituality, global diplomacy, and community engagement for health emergencies and wellbeing.

The 25th IUHPE World Conference on Health Promotion is set to bring together global leaders, experts, and advocates in health promotion and education. We would be delighted to have you join us in shaping the future of public health.

Don't miss this opportunity—submit your abstract before 15 January 2025!
